By United Press.
Kansas City, Mo., July 7.—Several persons are reported drowned and hundreds are homeless, thousands of head of live stock drowned, great devastation of crops, houses, barns, and other buildings washed away or afloat in the towns along the Grand and other rivers in Missouri and some parts of Iowa, is the result today, after the severe rains of yesterday and last night. It is believed that the death toll will reach a score and possibly more.

Telegraph and telephone communication is interrupted. Cities throughout the states are sending relief trains. Stores and bakeries have been abandoned and people are suffering from hunger. Provisions, rushed from nearby towns are unable to reach the flooded districts.

CALLS FOR HELP.

By United Press.
Kansas City, Mo., July 7.—Calls for help were received today from Pattenburg, Mo., a town of fifteen hundred inhabitants, which is under water to a depth of ten feet, many people being driven to the roofs of their homes. Several are reported drowned, and others in immediate peril. Houses are floating about and the fate of the occupants is unknown. The police chiefs here and at St. Joseph each sent 1000 row boats, but late word received states that the train is unable to get within three miles of the town. The water is still rising.

New York, July 7.—George Krupp, a fireman of Hook and Ladder Company 30, today obtained from Supreme Court Justice Blanchard an order permitting him to change his name to George Krapp.

He said they frequently said to him: "Come seven, come eleven," "How is the play?" and "Come have a game."

By United Press.
Galion, July 7.—Fred Klapp killed his six-year-old son Herbert, in the belief that he was shooting a burglar early this morning. He and his wife are well known and highly respected, and belong to one of the oldest families in the city. The wife, hearing a noise as the clock struck one, at first thought of their son who sometimes walked in his sleep. Listening she remembered that the son never walked down stairs without falling. She awakened her husband who told her to keep quiet, and took a revolver, made sure it was loaded, went down stairs, and heard some one moving about in the parlor. From the stairs he fired three shots. A cry rang out, "Oh, papa, papa, stop." He recognized Herbert's voice, but before he could stop his finger the fourth shot exploded, and the bullet pierced the child's heart.

FRIGHTENED ANIMALS.

Special to The Daily News.
East St. Louis, Ill., July 7.—In a pistol fight between William James, a negro, and a dozen detectives at the National Stock Yards, the negro was killed by Chief of Detectives P. Ryan.

The negro took refuge in a pen of mules, and the officers could only return his fire when the frightened animals rushed to one corner of the pen and left the man exposed for a moment.

The negro had made a horse trade he regretted, and with the $15 paid him "to hoot" he bought a revolver and forced them to trade back. When this had been done the negro drove off, and a man was sent after him to recover the $15.

Then the shooting was begun, and the negro ran into the mule pen. In the fusillade two bystanders were badly wounded. They are F. T. Ryan, of Olney, Ill., and William Rice, a local printer.

Pittsburg, Penn., July 7.—At New-castle today, all striking iron workers were paid, including the 1,500 employees of the hot mills of the Grues & Shenango tin plants. There was trouble when the company asked police protection, and Chief of Police Joseph Gilmore furnished it.

Local Amalgamated officials strenuously objected, claiming the police unnecessary, as there was no trouble, but the police insisted on remaining. In the absence of Mayor Harry Lusk, the police remained on guard.

No effort is being made today to start work in either plant, nor were any other plants in the big Pittsburg zone of strikers started.

Hotel Champlain, Clinton County, N. Y., July 7.—President Taft, Governor Hughes, of New York, Governor Prouty of Vermont, and scores of other celebrities, including Ambassadors Bryce, of England; and Jussard, of France, who are attending the celebration of the three hundredth anniversary of the discovery of Lake Champlain, moved today to Plattsburgh. Yesterday the pageant and oratory centered around the ruins of old Fort Ticonderoga and tomorrow there will be speechmaking at Burlington, across the lake. The exercises today began at Cliff Haven's Catholic summer school.

President Taft delivered an address to the students, Governor Hughes introducing him to the big crowd. The guests then inspected the Indian camp, a part of the celebration, then Mr. Taft reviewed the dress parade of the regular troops and the New York National Guardsmen who are encamped at the old Plattsburgh barracks. Then President Taft, Governor Hughes, Governor Prouty, Ambassadors Bryce and Jussard and others made speeches, eulogizing the pioneers who blazed trails through the forest wilderness three hundred years ago.

This evening a banquet in honor of President Taft will be followed by a display of fireworks on the Saranac river. President Taft will return to Washington tomorrow evening.

This is regarded as one of the most distinguished groups of Methodist leaders that has ever gathered on the Pacific coast. The real work starts tomorrow, and lasts until Monday.

The Holy Ghost and Us Society followers at Shiloh say he ought to know, and are making preparations to don the pure white robes, pass up to the house tops of their colony in the sequestered Maine village and await the dread moment.

Special to The Daily News.
Put-in-Bay, Ohio, July 7.—The machinery of Ohio law will grind less smoothly this week, due to the fact that most of the important parts are assembled at Hotel Victory to enjoy the thirtieth annual convention of the Ohio State Bar Association.

Many notable members of the Ohio bar are assembled here, among them U. G. Deannan, Attorney General of Ohio; Carmel A. Thompson, and Jas. R. Garfield, of Cleveland.

The first meeting of the convention should have been held yesterday afternoon, but word being received that a large number of the members had missed boat connections at Sandusky, it was held last night.

The one disappointment to mar the program was the receipt of a telegram by Secretary McCarter from Governor Judson Harmon, stating that the pressure of official business would prevent his attendance at the convention. The governor was to have delivered the principal address of the evening.

The session was opened by President A. D. Follett, who delivered the inaugural address. President Follett, Secretary Edward B. McCarter, of Columbus, and Treasurer Clement R. Gilmore, of Dayton, submitted reports to the effect that the association is increasing in membership and is strong financially.

Under special committees, the committee on Code of Legal Ethics, recommended the acceptance of the canons of professional ethics adopted by the American Bar Association. The committees on special legislation all pleaded lack of time, and failed to submit reports.

The mock trial by the ladies was deferred until the following session, owing to the lateness of the hour. After the meeting the members and their wives enjoyed a social session and dance.

From present indications the session promises to be notable in the history of the organization, both for the largest attendance and in the number of prominent persons present.

Lake Nivasha, B. E. While hunting through a jungle, he came upon lion tracks that were larger than any yet seen. With his gun bearers he followed the tracks, finally coming upon a huge king of the jungle almost unawares. The cornered beast turned and charged furiously in the direction of Mr. Roosevelt, seeking to get near enough to spring. The ex-President just had time to grab a gun from a bearer and fire one shot. That was enough for the beast stopped and sank dead.

Special to The Daily News.
Columbus, July 7.—State Fire Marshal John W. Zuber was more amused than disturbed by a report printed in a Cincinnati paper yesterday that he was to be removed by Governor Harmon for incompetency.

Not having been in office long enough yet to get his force of deputies appointed, he was inclined to regard the report of his incompetency as at least premature.

He expressed the hope he would prove competent to run the department at less cost than his predecessor and without giving excuse for the charge of favoritism made against former State Fire Marshal W. S. Rogers.

He had abolished the hated secret service force of Rogers, the personnel of which Rogers always refused to make known, but which included F. S. Rogers, a brother of the head of the department; F. R. Fowler, of Lisbon, said to be a brother-in-law of Assistant Marshal Orlor T. Brown; each paid $1,000; T. H. Langley, of Columbus, at $900, and Preston B. McGoodwin, a newspaper man, at $750.

Marshall Zuber also produced records showing that the attorney fees for the year General Rogers was in office amounted to about $6,500, for which outlay the state department obtained thirty-one convictions for arson. He contrasted this with the eighty-five convictions secured the year previous under former Marshal Creamer, when David B. Sharp, of Columbus, whom Zuber has reappointed, was attorney for the department.

For that year, Sharp drew $2,215, including expenses, and did practically all the legal work. Under Rogers, the department attorney, C. E. Ellis, of Columbus, drew $2,400 salary, and was given the help of special attorneys. Among them was former State Fire Marshal H. D. Davis, of Cleveland, who drew a total of $2,845.45 for attorney fees from August, 1908, to the removal of Rogers. For three months of the time, he was on the payroll at $200 a month and after that at $20 a day and expenses. During September and October when he was drawing $200 a month from the state, he was in charge of the Ohio bureau of the National League of Republican Clubs.

W. S. Fitzgerald, of Cleveland, member of the Republican state central committee, was paid for legal work, $200 in December, $144.15 in February, and presented Marshal Zuber a bill for $148 for additional services. Senator Frank Patterson of Ashland, was paid one fee of $40.

Special to The Daily News.
Waterloo, Iowa, July 7.—With a perfect day for traveling, splendid train arrangements and every one happy, the Cincinnati Elk special reached this point last night on time to the minute. All conditions point to an ideal trip to Los Angeles. The weather is delightful. None of the ladies or the children are experiencing any fatigue, and as for the men they don't count anyway.

All are looking forward eagerly to the time when the train enters California, for word has reached the party that a great reception awaits them at every town through which the train will pass. The railroad authorities say this is the biggest special train that has ever crossed the Rocky Mountains and so greatly pleased are they at the number Cincinnati has sent that the order has been issued that the "Herrmann special" shall have the right of way and the best there is in store in motive power.

Purely by accident the first Herrmann display on the train was made just as the train entered the home state of Herrmann's rival for the position of Grand Exalted Ruler. At Dubuque, Iowa, large pictures of the Cincinnati man were placed in each car window. But they were not needed to herald the nature of the opposition, for news of the Cincinnati special had preceded it everywhere.

Cheered in Iowa.

It is regarded as significant that at every important station in Iowa there were Elks on hand cheering the Cincinnatians. Nothing was in evidence to indicate that Iowa was a candidate, for the name of J. U. Cammille was neither spoken or displayed anywhere. There is one city in Iowa which will give Herrmann four votes.

John Galvin, who has been in charge of Herrmann's candidacy, announced that Henry A. Melvin, Judge of the Supreme Court of California, and also Past Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks, will place Herrmann in nomination. There will be a number of seconding speeches. It was also announced that Cincinnati Lodge is to be honored with being the guard of honor to the present Grand Exalted Ruler Rush L. Holland, of Colorado Springs, at the opening session of the Grand Lodge. So you see Cincinnati simply can't help from being conspicuous at Los Angeles.

There was an unpleasant and unexpected incident early Tuesday morning at Indianapolis. The Cincinnati special met the Columbus special, and the up-state Elks cheered Cincinnati and Herrmann so vigorously that Indiana's metropolis awoke and wondered what had happened. Columbus Elks will be one day behind the Cincinnatians, their itinerary going out being more extensive.

Last night, when the 200 Cincinnatians sat down to dinner, they were surprised at being handed some menu cards, bearing the portrait of August Herrmann and also the names of each person on the train. The Illinois Central had arranged those on the trip will have a unique memento of a great trip.

Herrmann has as his guests in the private car Past Grand Exalted Rulers Fanning, Galvin and O'Brien and Mrs. O'Brien. When the menu cards were served Fanning and O'Brien insisted on Herrmann responding to the compliment, and he did so, but reluctantly. He didn't say much, but he looked pleased.

REBUTTAL

Is Started in Geiger Case
Wednesday Morning.

ARGUMENTS WILL PROBABLY BE MADE AT THURSDAY'S SESSION.

REBUTTAL OF OTHER
TESTIMONY IN REBUTTAL

NOTHING MORE SENSATIONAL IS PROMISED BEFORE CLOSE OF TRIAL.

The defense rested in the case of the State of Ohio against Christian W. Geiger, Wednesday morning and the state immediately took up the rebuttal, which is simply for the purpose of contradicting some of the testimony offered by others used by the defense.

It is believed by the state's attorneys that the rebuttal will be completed Wednesday afternoon, and that the arguments can be made Thursday. This will mean that the case will be turned over to the jury not earlier than Friday, the day originally predicted as the one on which the case would go into the hands of the men who are to decide the fate of the defendant and accused.

The trial has dragged up until Wednesday, when the witnesses were examined in quick order and it was possible to go on through with the trial in faster time than on any previous day during the two and one-half weeks' session.

The principal feature of Wednesday afternoon's session was the placing on the stand by the defense of the members of the Geiger family including Francis, Alfred and Anna, children and Mrs. Geiger, wife of the defendant. All testified that they were not aware that Henderson or Martin ever visited the Geiger home. The department of Tuesday afternoon was taken with Mrs. Geiger still on the stand.

Wednesday Morning.

Court convened at 9:45 and Mrs. Christian Geiger was first placed on the stand on cross-examination and told of the visits of men to the Geiger home stating she did not know of the nature of their visits. She said many men called at the Geiger home on business. Witness denied that she saw the prisoners at the home. Witness could not identify Bert Ernst and said she had never seen him at the house that she could remember of. Witness did not know of husband's property and was not aware of the part in her own name. Mrs. Geiger testified that her husband was a foreman in a brewery at Lancaster, Ohio, when she married him, and that they afterward moved to Philadelphia. Witness testified that she did not know John W. Beam, that to her knowledge she had never seen him at the Geiger home. Never knew of any business Mr. Geiger had with Mr. Beam. On re-direct examination witness was asked regarding her family and told of the location of the various members of her family at the present time.

Mrs. Geiger was excused from the stand at 10:30 and was led away by her daughter. A recess was taken at 10:30.

Clay Judy was placed on the stand on rebuttal at 10:45, the defense completing its line of work and the state taking up the line of rebuttal. Witness testified that he did some wall papering for the defendant. The state attempted to introduce evidence showing that the witness, while papering in the Geiger home, saw a large number of new shoes there, but the court sustained the objection to the introduction of such evidence and made a ruling regarding the admission of evidence showing the character of the defendant on rebuttal. The court ruled against the admission of evidence regarding the defendant's character by showing the past deeds or acts of the defendant. Mr. Judy was excused at 10:55.

Hugh Patton took the stand next. Witness testified that he occupies the position of Court Constable at present, appointed by Judge Klunger. Witness said he was a policeman for a number of years in Lima, that he had done railroad work, including some detective work. Knows defendant, Christian W. Geiger, made investigation of Yokum robbery, and followed up the Geiger clue on request of Judge Klunger. Had conversation with Mr. Geiger in the Norval Hotel. Asked defendant if he was to contribute toward the relief of the men in jail. He said he did not know them and did not see why he should help men he did not know. Witness said name of Attorney Cooper was not mentioned to his recollection.

Mr. Patton denied that he had held a conversation with Mr. Geiger at the White Cafe and that he told Mr. Geiger he had better "come in." Said he did not take defendant into Norval or push him in, but that Geiger invited him in. On cross-examination witness testified regarding his calling up Mr. Geiger over the telephone. First saw Mr. Geiger in response to the call on the public square. Witness said he might have talked to Cooper about the case before the conversation with Mr. Geiger. Told again of the conversation with Mr. Geiger.

On re-direct examination, Patton testified that he knew Henderson and Martin were in the sheriff's private office and believed that they were making a confession to Judge Klunger. Said he first talked to Judge Klunger before the latter qualified as Judge of the Common Pleas Court and that the judge asked him to make an investigation of the matter at that time.

The witness was excused from the stand at 11:30. Bert Ernst was next called and testified that neither he or Mr. Sweeney said that if Geiger did not "come in" they would implicate him in the Yokum robbery. Witness said Geiger claimed he didn't get the money from the country that he expected to. He denied other parts of the conversation between himself, Sweeney and Geiger, as the defendant related upon the witness stand.

Witness testified that Mrs. Geiger was present during the interview, although Mrs. Geiger herself testified on the stand that she never saw Ernst at the home.

Wednesday Afternoon.
Bert Ernst was recalled to the stand when court reconvened at 1:45. He was shown the note signed by Thomas Sweeney, given to Geiger after the $25 was paid. The witness identified the receipt as that given to Sweeney by Geiger, March 13, 1909, for the defense of Henderson and Martin.

"What was written on it at the time you saw the receipt?"
"Just the amount and the signature of Tom Sweeney."
The witness was asked to read the receipt, which he did, to the jury. Witness said words, "In full satisfaction toward defraying the expenses in defending Martin and Henderson, we hereby relieve you from further molesting or annoyance," were not on the receipt at the time it was shown the witness.

County Recorder Fred W. Zeitz was called. He testified he knew John W. Beam's handwriting. He was shown a deed, which he said was Beam's handwriting. A photograph of a note to Geiger was also shown the recorder and he identified the handwriting as the same as that of the deed.

Mrs. Della Jeffries, alias Hutt, alias Dillon, alias Sheets, was called next and was questioned regarding her handwriting. Counsel for defense handed the witness a pad and pen and ink, and she was requested to write the following letter:

Lima, Ohio, March 12, 1909.

Dear Sir:
You have been requested several times to come forward and help Martin and Henderson out with amount demanded. Unless you do we intend to blow you and your home up.

From a Member.
It is the attempt of the defense to show the letter was written by the witness, while the state is endeavoring to show the letter was written by John W. Beam.

Accordingly the state called W. M. Gleason, one of the most famous handwriting experts in the state. Mr. Gleason was handed the original letters, deed and the handwriting of Della Jeffries, proceeding to the Norval Hotel, where he began the examination into the handwriting.

The witness was then questioned regarding the whereabouts of herself after leaving several days ago and being married. Mrs. Jeffries was excused at 2:20.

Miss Daisy Berry, of Mansfield, Ohio, was next called and was questioned regarding the nursing of Harry Slater in Lima, stating that she knew Myrtle Hunter, and knew that she nursed Slater after he was shot by Detective Kelly.

BOWLING GREEN COUPLE BALKED IN DETROIT, WED AT WINDSOR.

Special to The Daily News.

Detroit, July 7.—After traveling from Bowling Green, Ohio, James Arncliffe and Miss Jessie A. Smith, youthful elopers, were sadly disappointed when they applied for a marriage license Tuesday afternoon.

Jessie has not attained the legal marriageable age. She is 17 years old. In Michigan it is necessary for the bride to be 18; unless she is accompanied by her parents.

Arncliffe and Miss Smith crossed the river for Windsor, after being refused a marriage license here, and it is quite likely they are man and wife by this time. They admitted they had eloped but refused to tell why.

SENATOR ALDRICH SAYS THE MEASURE MAY BE PASSED IN A FEW HOURS.

AN INHERITANCE TAX MAY YET BE TACKLED ON

IT IS ALSO RUMORED THAT THE CORPORATION TAX WILL BE CUT IN TWO.

By United Press.

Washington, July 7.—The senate made such rapid progress with the tariff bill today that Senator Aldrich, shortly after noon, announced that he expected the bill would pass within a few hours. A rumor is in circulation that when the bill goes to the final conference the corporation tax will be reduced from two to one per cent, and that an inheritance tax of the same amount will be added.

Brown and Davis, the bicycle policemen who follow the President's automobile about the District of Columbia, are becoming expert riders on their new motors, and unless the roads are very bad, manage to keep up with the big car that carries the executive.

When the "bike cops" first got their motor cycles a few weeks ago they were frequently left far behind and made more than one ugly spill along the road while trying to keep within 30 or 40 feet of the President's car. The theory is that the policemen will guard the President from an attack by crank or enemy, or if he gets into a crowd, will save him from annoyance by over-enthusiastic admirers.

This theory looks good at first sight, but how on earth their presence in the rear, busy as they are with the manipulation of their chugging machines, could prevent a bullet or bomb from striking any one in the automobile, is more than any reasonable person can understand.

The bicycle police guard of the President has become an institution in Washington just like the Easter Monday egg rolling, the White House receptions, and the Monument to Father of His Country. If anyone suggested that the coppery presence with their wheels a groan of horror that could be heard across the Potomac.

Brown and Davis, the policemen, holding down the job, would probably groan louder than any if the idea were broached, for they like their job. No one can blame them for that because they have the easiest assignment of any policeman in the capital. They are supposed to be on duty all the time, ready to follow the President whenever he stirs from the White House, but their activities usually average four hours a day. They have their headquarters in the garage wherein are kept the White House automobiles, down near the Corcoran Art Gallery, south of the State, War and Navy building, and their hard work in the forenoon consists solely in interviewing Captain Archibald Butt, the President's chief military aide.

They wait around the entrance to the executive office in the morning until Captain Butt arrives along about 9:30 or 10 and learn from him the President's program for the day. Nine chances to one it is got in the afternoon at Chevy Chase or a ride out in the direction of Rock Creek Park. During these exciting days of nothing doing as a rule, leaves the mansion for his afternoon recreation at 2 or 2:30 p. m. The bicycle policemen are at the entrance of the White House half an hour or so before the appointed time. The President is half an hour or so behind the appointed time in getting away.

In company with Captain Butt, General Clarence Edwards, the Vice President and Senator Bourne, or whom ever he takes with him, President Taft emerges from the glass doors, leisurely climbs into the big steam-car, and Robinson, the road-burning chauffeur, opens the throttle. Brown and Davis leap on their motor cycles, start the engine, and spin after the cloud of dust rolling out of the avenue gate.

Senator William O. Bradley broke out in the senate a few evenings ago when every one was feeling fagged out, mad and ready to fight, and restored good humor by a speech on jute and other things.

"I have seen a great many sorts of politics since I have been in the senate," Mr. President, he said, "a great many strange things that I don't understand being a young man from the country, not acquainted with the arts and science of politics, but being a plain and simple old-fashioned Kentuckian. And tariff has been ringing in my ears until I feel a good deal like the man down in Kentucky that killed another man."

When arraigned he was asked to tell his story.

"I killed him in self defense," said the prisoner.
"Did he try to kill you?" asked the prosecutor.
"No, he did not."
"Did he insult your wife or daughter?"
"No, he did not."
"Did he draw a weapon on you?"
"No, he did not."
"Then what did you kill him for?"

"Well," answered the prisoner, "because he came to my house when I was acting as a gentleman and not interrupting anybody and said he had come down to talk tariff to me."

The senate was in a mood to appreciate the grievous nature of the provocation and enjoyed the joke.

Toledo Priest Holds Would Be Burglar For the Police

DERANGED MAN CAUGHT AT THE RESIDENCE OF THE REV. O'BRIEN.

INVITED INTO THE HOUSE HE WAS SOON A PRISONER

FORCED HIM TO REMAIN PEACEFULLY QUIET UNTIL THE POLICE CAME.

Special to The Daily News.

Toledo, Ohio, July 7.—Annoyed for some time by a mysterious midnight visitor, the Rev. Patrick O'Brien, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, on Tuesday night held Geo. H. Cooke, 30, at the point of a revolver until Motor Cop Ricard arrived and placed him under arrest.

Cooke appeared at the priest's residence, 530 Clark street, East side, at about nine o'clock. He appeared agitated, and, according to the clergyman, immediately began to hurl insulting remarks at Father O'Brien. The priest invited the visitor into the house, and then, entering him with a revolver, commanded him to remain quiet until the officer arrived.

Cooke is a bookkeeper and lives at 711 Elm street. He is a man of education and refinement, but his mind is apparently deranged on the subject of religion. He was taken before Probate Judge O'Donnell on Wednesday morning to be examined as to his sanity.

About midnight on Saturday, Father O'Brien was awakened by a violent ringing of the bell at the parish house. Believing it was a sick call, Father O'Brien thrust his head out of the window and inquired what was wanted.

"It's a gentleman who wants to see you," was all the information the visitor would give the priest and he refused to open the door.

Father O'Brien was in Cleveland on Monday night, when a strangely-acting stranger—believed to be Cooke, called to see him.

"I believe the poor fellow is insane," said Father O'Brien, "but under the circumstances I was compelled to seek protection. When I received that midnight visit on Saturday from the mysterious stranger my fears were aroused and had he returned later I believe I would have shot him."

When taken before Inspector Carrow on Wednesday morning, Cooke talked in a rambling manner that convinced the officer that his mind was unbalanced.

FOR SAVINGS AND DEPOSITS.

Nine years ago The Lima Home Savings Association began paying 5 per cent for deposits in any amount with privilege of compound interest. On account of the safe and secure manner in which such deposits have been handled, many people of large and small means, have accepted the very liberal opportunity of having their funds invested at a rate that is worth while, until nearly $355,000.00 have accumulated earning 5 per cent. These deposits are used by this Association only for loans on city and farm homes in Lima and vicinity. Nothing but first mortgages are taken to secure these loans; ample insurance is required for the Association's protection, as well as frequent reduction of principal.

Another feature of safety is the annual examination by state authority to which this Association is subjected. The last examination was completed on the 20th of May, 1909, and included an investigation of all of the Association's investments and securities.

All persons with money to lay by at the liberal rate this Association has been paying for many years, who are seeking a place where safety, security and convenience are in every transaction of its business, are invited to its office in the Masonic Building, west of the post-office, Lima, Ohio.

Games Today.
Lancaster at Lima.
Marion at Mansfield.
Portsmouth at Newark.

It looked for a time yesterday as if that name, Mr. Ruttenegger, was to prove Lancaster's doom and that the Cigarmakers would have little trouble in defeating the Champions. But it was not long to last. Old "Iron Man" Justus was placed in the box in the third inning by Manager Fox replacing Mr. Ruttenegger. Of course it was impossible to think that Lima could pound this man Justus. He always was one of the principal "hoodlums" for the locals.

At the start the game looked as if it would become a general slug-out and not until Justus went in the box did things settle down. The premier twirler of the Lanks had his best with him and he delivered it in bunches, striking out six men after he went to the mound. It was ladies' day, and of course there was plenty of rooting for faithful old "Charley" Pickett, who was rapped and by the Champions, a total of 11 hits being taken off him. Lallier's hitting, a double and two singles out of four times at bat was the real feature of the game.

Lancaster scored in the very first inning. Newham's fumble allowed Reynolds first base, and he was advanced by Humphreys' sacrifice. Gowdy slide to Fink, while Lallier made a double, resulting in the scoring of Reynolds. Compton was retired by Weller to Sikes. One run.

Lima's only scoring tour was made in the second inning. Morgan whiffed. Newham singled and stole second. Weller and Pickett were both hit by pitched balls and a pass to Fink forced one man home. Fohl made a pretty sacrifice fly and Weller scored. Relly popped out to Gowdy. Two runs.

The only remaining scoring was in the third inning. Reynolds and Humphreys each singled to right garden in turn. Gowdy was retired. Newham to Sikes, Lallier singled and Reynolds came across the plate. Compton made a pretty hit to center garden, sending Humphreys home. Lallier was put out for running off the line between second and third, and Corbin was retired. Pickett to Sikes. Two runs.

KETCHEL

Loses Much Of His Prestige
As the Great Assassin.

FAILED TO MAKE THE SHOWING AGAINST PAPKE THAT WAS EXPECTED BY FIGHT
FANS.

A LACK OF TRAINING GIVEN AS THE REASON.

GAMENESS ALONE WON THE DECISION FOR THE "TER-ROR" FROM WOLVERINE
STATE.

Special to the Daily News.

San Francisco, July 7.—The bulble has burst. Fight fans no longer treble at the mention of "Assassina's" name. The bone-crusher has himself been crushed. Stanley Ketchel, middle-weight champion of the world, now stands in the light of a game, but very ordinary, boxer, so far as real power of execution is concerned.

San Francisco was today in the argumentative throes of the middleweight battle's aftermath. All sorts of opinions were expressed, and many different theories advanced concerning the unsatisfactory ending of Monday's engagement.

One fact is readily admitted on all sides, and that Ketchel won on his gameless alone. Without having the strength or the ability to inflict real damage, the champion kept up a stout-hearted appearance of aggressiveness, and this is what sent his number up when the battle was finished.

The question asked all over the city tonight is, "What was the matter with Papke in the twentieth round?" When the bell sounded for this final session the honors of the day were so evenly balanced that had Papke, with his greater strength, extended himself, he should have been an easy winner, as Ketchel was so weak that a hard shove must have sent him off his feet.

All during the latter part of the fight Papke's strength and better condition were in evidence. Many ring side spectators voiced the impression that the Keweenaw man was waiting for the twentieth round, when he would win with a final rush.

It will be many a long day before Billy Papke will be able to explain away his actions during that last three minutes of battle. Some of the more unkind but plain-spoken critics make a straightforward charge that Papke is not game.

Ketchel was taken to the Sultan Baths, where he spent the night under a physician's care, while Papke hurried back to his quarters at the Seal Rocks Hotel, no more distressed than if he had been working so many rounds with his sparring partner.

Let him yell robbery as loud as he may, Bill Papke has only himself to blame that he is not wearing the championship crown again. He had the trump card dealt to him in the twentieth round and he deliberately shoved the pasteboard back in the deck again.

Papke to Leave Frisco.
The Papke brothers may leave for Los Angeles tonight or at the latest, Thursday afternoon. Failing in his desire to get a definite answer from Britt as to a return match with Ketchel, Papke today signed articles for a ten-round fight with Jim Flynn before Tom McCarry's club in Los Angeles, July 17.

Under the city ordinance of Los Angeles no decision can be rendered, but there will be a referee in the ring, most likely Charlie Eganon.
McCarry, after the match was signed,
up in which he agreed to give Papke 40 per cent of the gross receipts, left for Los Angeles to make his arrangements. This was the match that Ketchel had agreed to accept, but on account of so-called injuries to his hands was obliged to call it off.

"I had a long talk with Willis Britt and Ketchel in the morning," said Manager Ed Papke. "We wanted a return match for forty-five rounds the worst way, but Britt kept stalling us and saying he could not tell me just when we could have a match. McCarry insisted upon an immediate answer and we accepted his terms."

"Because of the Flynn fight we will not be able to accept any match with Ketchel until August or September."
We would prefer a September date.
Britt talks of having Ketchel fight
Johnson first, but after Ketchel's showing I don't see how he can ask a fight with a heavy weight before he meets Papke again. There is no use complaining over the decision.
Of course we think it should have been a draw decision."

Did Ketchel Train Properly?
Britt has not yet decided where to go with Ketchel, but it will probably be to some mountain retreat, where auto may be put out and hunting and fishing substituted. In spite of the doctor's statement, sports put little credence in Ketchel's excuse about breaking the bones in his hand.
They attribute his poor showing to a lack of training and to dissipation which extended down to within less than a week of the fight. Many also believe Ketchel has already begun to lose that marvelous quickness and force which won him so many battles.

Ketchel's inability to knock out Papke inside of ten rounds, as he has bragged he would do, has hurt his prestige here, and local sportsmen believe Ketchel will have to substitute Al Kaufman for Ketchel in the proposed fight with Jack Johnson in the Pacific exhibition week in October.
Ketchel knows that he could not draw a big crowd with Ketchel after the sorry showing Ketchel made with Papke, but Kaufman has greatly improved as a boxer, and he is as large as the big Negro and he has a knockout punch in either hand.

IS JEFF STALLING?

Eastern Critics Are Painting the Retired Champion.

Special to the Daily News.

Philadelphia, July 7.—"If Jim Jeffries or some of his admirers would post a forfeit of $5,000 and cover the money which Jack Johnson has had up for some time he would please a mighty lot of followers of boxing throughout America," says Hugh Kane in the Philadelphia Record.
"But as time rolls on Jeffries seems to be greatly disappointing the lovers of the game by the tactics he is pursuing. For some months he has been telling the newspaper interviewers that he meant to get in shape and go after Johnson's scalp, if he could find that there was any possibility of getting into such physical condition that he would feel that he has any chance of doing himself justice in the ring. He has been doing light training for a long time and has greatly reduced his weight, but he has not as yet positively put himself on record as being willing to take a chance with the big negro in the ring. He dodges and evades the question every time it is put to him, and as a result the sporting public is no wiser now than it was a couple of months ago as to what are really Jeffries' intentions in the matter. The quester critics of the champion are beginning to tell on his popularity with the public, for his recent exhibitions of boxing have not been very well attended, and some of them have not been financial successes to the promoters. As one sporting writer put it a few days ago in writing of an exhibition given by Jeffries in a New England town, 'Old John L. Sullivan, even today, would outdraw Jeffries as a theatrical attraction,' which clearly shows that Jeffries is not holding his place in the hearts of the sporting public, who are beginning to lose faith in his profession of a desire to win back the championship, which is now held for the first time in ring history by a black man. It appears to be another illustration of that famous saying of President Lincoln: 'You can fool some of the people all of the time and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all the people all the time.'"

ONLY TWELVE

WAS JUSTUS WHEN HE STARTED UPON PITCHING WORK.

HAS TWIRLED SOME WONDER-FUL BALL IN THE PAST TEN YEARS.

Special to the Daily News.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., July 7.—Walter Justus, the star twirler of the Ohio State League, who is pitching such sensational ball for the Lancaster team, is a native of this city, and the fans here predict that he will be grabbed by some major league team before the expiration of the season. Justus started pitching when he was 12 years old—just 10 years ago. When he was still a youth he held the strong Shamrocks of Cincinnati to one run in ten innings. He first attracted attention to himself by his great work while pitching for the Bauer Cooperage team of the Manufacturers' League in 1903.
Since then he has had many tryouts with teams of the American Association, Southern League and American League, but accident has always prevented his success in fast company. Last year, while pitching for Lancaster, he established a world's record of four no-hit shut-out games in one season. He has one such performance to his credit this year, and he has won two double-headers.

Justus is a stocky, powerfully built athlete and possesses speed far beyond the average successful twirler.
And he would rather play ball than eat or sleep.

TESTIMONIAL WORTH WHILE.

The humble testimonial given the retiring minister of the First Baptist church of Fort Worth, Texas, by the tradespeople of that town is one of which any man might well be proud and which he should display among the great of his treasures.

When Rev. Charles Daniel severed his connection with the charge at Fort Worth to take the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Atlanta, Georgia, a letter was given the deacons of the Fort Worth church by the business men of that city to be sent to Atlanta testifying as to the character of the minister. It indicated that it would be perfectly safe to extend credit to the preacher and said in part:

"Tell your grocers, butchers and retail men generally and also bankers to trust him implicitly, for he is a man of his word and a consecrated Christian gentleman, holding the conference, respect and esteem of all whether high or low, rich or poor, humble or great. His promptness in paying his debts has made him a power in Fort Worth."

Such a letter is one which should be regarded as one of the greatest testimonials within the power of man to bestow. With the majority of human beings the old-fashioned virtue of paying one's debts promptly has been relegated to the rear and among many men it is conceded to be the acme of shrewdness to escape paying just obligations. This standard obtains among the educated and influential as well as among the poor and ignorant and many of the social elite are keeping up a show of wealth and prosperity by refusing to pay the butcher, the baker and every other tradesman who is unfortunate enough to be involved in commercial transactions with them.

The man who pays his debts promptly and fully is rapidly becoming more difficult to find. Yet it is noticeable that the standing of such a man is vastly higher than that of the honest man of former times. The old-fashioned virtue of paying one's obligations promptly is still to be considered as an asset to be coveted. It increases the prestige of an individual among the solid substantial men of any community and it gives an added weight to any utterance which he may make. It helps him keep his head above the waters of extravagances and of financial ruin and best of all it increases his self-respect a thousand fold.

The letter given to the Fort Worth minister by the tradespeople of that town while it may deal with things which are not commonly spoken of in letters of recommendation for ministers is one which should bring a glow of pride to his heart. It speaks well for his character as a man and it carries a recommendation that cannot be purchased save by merit. An honest man is the noblest work of God and the testimonial of the tradespeople, shows that the minister is one of the elect.—Springfield Sun.

PETTY POLITICS.

The taxpayers of Allen county are again called upon to foot the bill for a bit of petty politics. In the appointment of Thomas Phalen, Jr., comes the addition of a salary to the county pay roll for alleged duties which have been formerly discharged by Probation Officer Andrew Ernst on the one salary as Secret Service Officer.

The new office is legitimate under the state law, but is merely another drain on the county treasury to the extent of what Judge Hutchison may desire to make it, for he can go as high as $100 a month for Mr. Phalen. The appointment of Phalen comes as an aftermath to the recent committee fight in which Judge Hutchison and his guard were defeated by the opposition. Secret Service Officer Andrew Ernst has heretofore discharged the duties of probation officer, and no complaint has been made by Judge Hutchison of his efficiency. Now comes the jurist with a new appointment and the $100-a-month inroad on the county treasury to fill an office not needed, and heretofore not considered necessary by him.

At the rate the various appointive powers of the county capitol have been going the past year, the taxpayers of the county will soon be called upon to meet an additional levy. The power to stop these salary grabs is without the jurisdiction of the county commissioners as the courts merely certify the salaries desired for their appointees to the Auditor, and that official has no alternative, but to dive into the strong box of Uncle Tommy and pay over the macrama.

Petty politics and salary grabbing should cease, and it is in the power of the taxpayers of the county to call a halt. The office of Mr. Phalen is about as necessary as a fifth leg to a mongrel pup.

Abdul Hamid seems to be as much of a trust as a farmer as he was while sultan. He hasn't sent in any hurry call for farm hands and the Kansas agriculturalists have been calling for help for a month.

The visit paid Taft by the spring poet of Beverly, the mayor and the chief of police should lend Mr. Bryan some consolation because he failed to reach the White House.

With the Sugar Trust and Senator Aldrich doing business, it seems that poor Mr. Columbus has an added burden of guilt to bear for discovering America.

As yet there seems to be no objections to sending 20,000 souvenir post cards to the dead letter office daily.

Still there is hope that the safe and sane one may come in 1910.

The Best Bet—That there are more snits to follow.

REPORTS

SHOW CONSIDERABLE INTEREST TAKEN IN NEW PARK.

COMMITTEES ARE WORKING HARD IN PREPARATION FOR BIG EVENT.

The East Lima Improvement Club held another meeting Tuesday evening and some exceedingly encouraging reports were returned by members of the committee working hard to place the new Lincoln Park in proper shape for the dedication which occurs one week from Thursday. The committee on sidewalks reported that 500 feet of sandstone sidewalk had been laid and that the rustic bridge was in readiness.

The club hall has been beautifully decorated and several hundred guests will be entertained there during the progress of the people to and from the park on the day of the dedication, A. E. Mowery, G. W. Engle and N. R. Swan were three new members taken in Tuesday evening.

Another meeting of the club will be held next Tuesday evening at which time the further preparations for the dedicatory exercises at Lincoln Park will be made.

WRIGHTS

Seem to Care Very Little About the Wearers of Epaulets

WILBUR GOES OFF TO NEW YORK WITHOUT EVEN NOTIFYING THE BRIG. GEN.

ORVILLE RETURNS HOME FOR A PIECE OF CLOTH

AND THE ARMY OFFICERS ARE PRETENDING ABOUT TICKLING CONGRESS FOR MONEY.

Special to The Daily News.

Washington, July 7.—Signal Corps officers concerned in the aeroplane trials are beginning to exhibit signs of irritation at the apparent unconcern of the Wright brothers regarding aspects of the matter which, to the officers, seem exceedingly important, principally the relation of congress and its power to make appropriations. That body, whence flow all blessings for army and navy, will shortly dispose of the tariff question and disperse to places and interests far removed from aerial navigation.

Beginning with Brigadier General James Allen, the Chief Signal Officer every member of the corps wants the members of the house and senate to witness the remarkable flights made by the Wright brothers in order that they will treat more kindly and with greater familiarity the requests for appropriations for aeronautical work.

The Wrights acknowledge no other interest than to fulfill the conditions of their contract as soon as possible, but without assuming any unnecessary risks.

Wilbur Wright left for New York last night in a decidedly unmilitary manner. He failed to notify the officers stationed at the aerodrome that he intended to go, nor did he leave word as to what he would be back or as to what necessitated his departure in the midst of the Ft. Myer trials.

While Orville is expected back from Dayton today, it seems hardly likely that there will be any more flights at Ft. Myer before next week.

"Why do the Wrights insist on building their own motors? That is something I cannot understand, when there are so many experts who could furnish them with a motor that would not skip or stop while the machine is in the air," said one of the Signal Corps officers yesterday.

He also commented upon Orville Wright's feeling compelled to travel to Dayton in order to get a strip of cloth to repair the wing of the aeroplane.

The roots and herbs are tested for uniformity of strength, and the utmost care and accuracy is maintained throughout the entire preparation of this great remedy for woman's ills.

Edward Watson, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, pleaded not guilty, and his case will be heard Friday.

M. C. Landon, of Ada, arrested on a charge of drunkenness, was fined one dollar and costs. Landon was in company with Joseph Connors, of Ada, when the latter lost a foot Tuesday afternoon in attempting to board a Pennsylvania railroad passenger train.

THE ROUNDUP

Among the successful applicants at the examination of the Ohio State Medical Board, held on June 5, 8 and 10, was Herbert A. Thomas, son of Rev. and Mrs. Joan G. Thomas, of 503 west Wayne street, and the young man is now a full fledged M. D. Of a class of 183, all but fourteen were successful in receiving diplomas, the names being announced yesterday.

Billy Lowe, formerly of this city, but who has engaged in business in Milton, New Hampshire, for the past several years, is reported to have suffered a severe financial loss when his paper mill at Milton was destroyed by fire several days ago. The mill was one of the largest in the New England States, and was doing an immense business. Friends here are hoping that the loss to Mr. Lowe may not be as heavy as at first reported.

John Black, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Black, of west North street, who has been one of the instructors in the department of chemistry at Cornell University, has been appointed to teach the same branch at Western Reserve University at Cleveland. The new position is a more important and lucrative one, and Mr. Black is receiving congratulations upon his success in his chosen profession.

Charles Shepherd and Harold Murkin, of Celina, Ohio, have returned home after spending the Fourth with their cousin, Dee Corwin, of north Elizabeth street.

H. W. Bennett, the mortician, left Lima today on an extended trip through the west and southwest, during which he will combine business with pleasure. He will visit many points of interest and while enjoying sight-seeing, will be constantly on the look-out for a future business location. Mr. Bennett has been an active worker in several of the local fraternal organizations to which he belongs, and will be greatly missed in more than one lodge room since the sale of his business interests in this city will necessitate his removal to some other city.

Mr. and Mrs. Eb. Davis are back from the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans home, where Mr. Davis completed his duties under the Republican administration ten days ago. "Yes, we will continue to reside in Lima," said Mr. Davis this morning, "and are glad to get back."

There are some very choice real estate bargains over the city these days and a consultation of the seventh page will point out a few of the bargains being offered.

Auditor E. G. Akerman is not at his desk these days, being busily engaged in superintending the removal from 133 north Baxter street to the handsome new home the auditor has just completed at the corner of Jackson avenue and Wayne streets.

E. H. Kettler, of the firm of Neuman & Kettler, has joined the busy throng of furniture dealers now at the Grand Rapids openings.

San Francisco, Cal., July 7.—The schooner Monterey, Captain Anderson, arriving today from Alaska, reports the possible loss of the missionary schooner J. F. Abler and a score of lives. The Abler sailed from Seattle on June 3, with a crew of eight men and thirteen passengers. When the Monterey arrived at Bethel, to which place the Abler was bound, Indian trappers stated that the missionary vessel had last been seen struggling in a heavy storm some distance out at sea.

OWNERS

Of West Market Street Property Express Their Views

DO NOT AGREE WITH CITY COUNCIL AS TO MATERIAL DESIRED.

NO BALLOTS RETURNED FOR ASPHALT BLOCK

MAJORITY OF PROPERTY OWNERS FAVOR WOOD BLOCK BUT WILL WAIT A YEAR.

Owners of west Market street property abutting along the line of the proposed re-paving of that street, between Elizabeth and Cole streets, held another meeting in the city council chamber last night to hear the report of the committee on the result of the canvass of the votes which had been cast by the property owners in expressing their desires as to the kind of material desired for the improvement of the street. Cards had been sent out by the special committee soliciting expression of the wishes of the property owners as to the kind of material desired, and while the city council has placed itself on record as being almost unanimously in favor of asphalt block, not one foot of frontage on the street has been voted in favor of that material. On the contrary, a large majority of the frontage represented in the ballots returned sustained the recommendation of the special committee, favoring the adoption of creosoted wood block as the material desired for the improvement.

The ballots which had been returned to the special committee had been canvassed by that committee, and the returns, based on the frontage owned by each voter were compiled as follows:

Creosoted wood block.....3,693.7 ft.
Sheet asphalt.....1,819.4 ft.
Vitrified brick.....794.3 ft.
Bitulithic.....267.0 ft.
Macadam.....150.0 ft.

The submitting of the report of the ballots by Chairman Mitchell of the special committee, opened the way for a discussion as to the merits of the various materials, and J. O. Ohler was the first to open the discussion. He stated that he had found creosoted wood block paving in many cities in this country and abroad, and believed that the west Market street people would be pleased with their decision if they secured that kind of material on their street. Dr. George Hall, who followed Mr. Ohler, was not so particular as to the kind of material used so long as a first-class foundation was provided.

W. L. Parmenter declared that he was satisfied to accept any kind of material that was recommended by the members of the special committee which had investigated street paving for the benefit of the other property owners on the street, but the question that was before the meeting, he thought, was that of having the improvement made this year or at some later date. He was willing to wait another year, or even a couple of years, if the improvement be made properly when made. He concluded by making a motion to defer the improvement for one year and secure new legislation and re-advertise for bids for the work. This motion was carried and the special committee was retained.

FOUND IN THROES OF DEATH BY WIFE ON WEDNESDAY MORNING.

The entire city, especially in railroad circles was shocked Wednesday morning to learn of the sudden death of George R. Simpson, foreman in the mechanical department of the C. H. & D. shops of this city. The deceased was found dead by his wife shortly after five o'clock.

The deceased has been a foreman in the C. H. & D. shops for the past twenty-two years and has during that time made friends in large numbers. He was one of the veteran employees of the C. H. & D., and was held in the highest of esteem by officials of the road. The position he held was one of considerable importance and as a foreman he proved especially a friend of the men working with him, and under him.

The deceased has been in his usual health and has been working as usual. The first intimation that he was ill came to his wife at five o'clock Wednesday morning when she heard him seemingly snoring in the bedroom upstairs. She hastened up and found him dying. Dr. Johnson was called, but before the call had reached him, Mr. Simpson had passed away. The attending physician was of the opinion that death had been caused by apoplexy.

Mr. Simpson was born in Franklin county, a little over 55 years ago, coming to Allen county when about 23 years of age, and residing here ever since. A wife and two daughters survive the deceased, Ethel and Lois both residing at home. Bayless

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

NEW PHONE 1717

One of the many Fourth of July parties that has just returned, is one of 15, that enjoyed themselves at Lake View and Russell Point. The party was composed of Charles Pelletier, wife and children, of Harrison avenue; E. E. Uptight, wife and daughter, of the Misses Rosa Meekler, Laura and Bertha Brown, of south Pine street; Mrs. Emma Switzer and Mrs. Rhodes, of the Sandford Block. It is putting it mild when you say that a good time was had, for all who know this bunch, could not predict anything else. Regular western life style was indulged in, the men donned the fishing and hunting suits, while the ladies prepared the feast, while all ate and slept under a large tent.

At five o'clock on Tuesday evening, Rev. T. H. Campbell, of Trinity M. E. Church, performed the ceremony which united the lives of Mr. Albert C. Farrell, of Indianapolis, and Miss Helen Marie Pangle, of this city. Owing to illness in the bride's family, the ceremony was a very quiet one, only the immediate families being present. Mr. and Mrs. Farrell left at once for Indianapolis, where they will make their home. The bride is one of Lima's most popular daughters, and she will be greatly missed by her many friends, who, however, unite in extending best wishes.

The Woman's Missionary society of Epworth church will meet with Mrs. A. H. Weaver, at 2:30 o'clock on Friday afternoon instead of Thursday, the change being occasioned by the death of one of the members. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested persons to attend this meeting.

At the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Charles Cammille, 140 Pearl street, Rev. T. H. Campbell, of Trinity Church, united in the bonds of matrimony, Mr. Eli Cordrey and Miss Basila Farmer, both of Bellefontaine, the ceremony being witnessed by about thirty-five relatives and friends of the couple. The bride, a handsome young woman, was becomingly attired in a gown of white silk. A wedding supper followed the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Cordrey left later for the Lewis town reservoir, where they will spend their honeymoon with relatives. They will reside in Bellefontaine, where the groom has a home in readiness.

(By MARJORIE GRAY.)

Someone has recently written an article, deploring "the overvaluation of love," the false standards of cheap fiction which foster it and the lamentable results of suicide and crime which follow it.

Love, the writer declares, is in reality "no life and death matter at all," and "normal people train themselves not to fall in love periodically—to avoid it as they would fits—and when they do, to treat the ill rationally."

Al! this sounds very well, but, unfortunately, it is not the "normal" people who really fall in love. To experience "the grand passion," to its heights and depths, one must be a bit abnormal. The calm, calculating, practical, easygoing person is immune by reason of his own nature—he (or she) will never "die for love."

And to argue philosophically, upon the subject with the other kind of people—those who are not absolutely normal—is a waste of time and breath. No real lover was ever, at the same time, a philosopher—the two are polar opposites!

Not Artificial.

Literature—both cheap and otherwise—may, to a certain extent, be responsible for the dissemination of the prevailing ideals of love; but, nevertheless, those ideals originated in human minds and hearts, or they would not be so readily accepted by humanity at large. The fact that they strike a responsive chord proves that they are not artificial.

It must be admitted, of course, that love is a great destroyer of physical and mental comfort, and that, from a purely worldly standpoint people would be much better off without it.

True, the love that ends in tragedy seems, to our finite minds, a terrible waste. Yet who knows but what, from a higher viewpoint, the world is, indeed, "well lost for love?"

It has been said by one of our sages that true love is never "wasted." Even unreciprocated love is in a measure its own compensation. The mere emotion of loving—however fraught with pain—has an ethereal beauty, an exquisite gladness which nothing else in God's world can give.

Barren Without Love.

Without love there would be few artists, fewer musicians—and no poets.

Love is—it must be acknowledged—irrational, injudicious, a disturber of peace, and all that. But the lover in his "fine frenzy" breathes a purer atmosphere, attains a higher point of vision, and catches glimpses (however fleeting) of the Infinite, such as never fall to the lot of the comfortable, sensible, "normal" beings who "avoid love as they would fits."

To those out of love it is easy enough to see its extravagance, its foolishness, the insanity (if you will) of its promptings and actions. But the lover's longings and heartaches are as real to him as another fellow's toothache is to its possessor—the dream and wordless aspirations of the former are as tangible as the daily paper of the latter.

ANNUAL

Reception and Banquet of St. Rose Alumni Association

ONE OF THE MOST PLEASING SO-CIAL GATHERINGS IN MANY YEARS.

MUSICAL PROGRAM AND
TOAST LIST DELIGHTFUL

LARGE ATTENDANCE AND MANY HAPPY REUNIONS OF OLD CLASSMATES.

The annual reception and banquet of the St. Rose Alumni Association was held Tuesday evening at St. Rose Hall.

Over eighty members of the Association were present and it was one of the most successful banquets ever held. The following excellent program was carried out:

Part 1.
Overture—Bells.....Chopin
Sadie O'Connor.

Opening Address
President Harry E. Small
Secretary's Report.....Elizabeth M. Hannon
Historian's Report.....Edward J. Veasey

Part 2.
Banquet.

Toastmaster.....Edward J. Veasey
Friendship.....Frank J. Callahan
Piano—La. Rovel D'Armon.

The Holy Father.....Rev. R. I. Kinnane, D. D.
Vocal Solo—Love's Old Sweet Song
Cecelia Stein

Closing Address.....Rev. A. E. Manning
Social hour.

Each number on the program was greatly enjoyed and then great merriment prevailed when the young toastmaster arose and cleverly introduced the speakers and singers. The "under man" being called each time to a wealth of intellectual talks and infectious sounds.

Mr. Frank Callahan handled his subject in a very fine manner and received great applause.

Rev. Dr. Kinnane's address on "The Holy Father," will long be remembered for its simplicity and beauty. Too much could not be said of the Sovereign Pontiff and hearing it from one who had the honor of visiting His Holiness on many occasions was indeed a rare treat.

The banquet closed with an address by Rev. A. E. Manning, that was very much in keeping with the grand event. He congratulated the committee who had made the evening a success and welcomed the new Alumni members of 1909 class, telling them of their duties and urging them to always be faithful to their Alum Mater.

All returned to the dance hall and spent a very pleasant hour.

The pianist for the evening was Miss Alice Cunningham.

The committee of decoration deserved great credit for their artistic work. Natural colors of red and white and "49" colors, lavender and gold, were used in the banquet room and the effect was very pretty, candles being made of many streamers.

Palms, ferns and carnations added to the finishing touches.

Lavender and gold were used on the second floor and the rooms and hallways were indeed beautiful to look upon.

The St. Rose Alumni Association
now numbers 100, and is rapidly
